

I am very concerned about the current matter of the attempt to weaken the Indiana Telephone Privacy Act being considered. As a citizen I have been very thankful for relief from telemarketing calls the phone privacy act has brought. Please don't allow anyone to take this away from us.